

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

YOUR DUTY OF DISCLOSURE

Before you enter into a contract of general insurance with an insurer, you have a duty, under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth), to disclose to the insurer every matter that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, that is relevant to the insurer's decision whether to accept the risk of the insurance and, if so, on what terms.

You have the same duty to disclose those matters to the insurer before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate a contract of general insurance.

Your duty however does not require disclosure of matters:

- that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by the insurer;
- that is of common knowledge;
- that your insurer knows or, in the ordinary course of its business, ought to know;
- as to which compliance with your duty is waived by the insurer.

NON DISCLOSURE

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, the insurer may be entitled to reduce their liability under the contract in respect of a claim or may cancel the contract. If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, the insurer may also have the option of avoiding the contract altogether.

CLAIMS MADE INSURANCE

This is a proposal for a 'Claims Made' policy of insurance. This mean that the policy covers you for any claims made against you and notified to the insurer during the policy period. The policy does not provide cover in relation to:

- acts, errors or omissions that occurred prior to the retroactive date (if one is specified) in the Policy;
- any claim made, threatened or intimated against you prior to the commencement of the policy period;
- any claim or fact that might give rise to a claim, noted in this proposal or any previous proposal;
- any claim arising out of any fact you are aware of before the commencement of the policy period;
- any claim made against you after the expiry of the policy period.

However, the effect of Section 40(3) of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) is that where you become aware, and notify us in writing as soon as is reasonably practicable after first becoming aware but within the policy period, of any facts which might give rise to a claim against you, any claims which does arise out of such facts shall be deemed to have been made during the policy period, notwithstanding that the claim was made against you after the expiry of the policy period.

PRIVACY NOTICE

Your privacy is important to us. This privacy statement provides information about the personal information that Stand Underwriting Pty Ltd ("we") collects, and the ways in which we use this personal information.

Why do we collect your information?

We may need to collect your personal information so that we can provide you with the insurance services you are seeking from us.

Using Personal Information

We may use your personal information to:

- arrange insurance and provide a claims service;
- send to you statements and invoices;
- collect payments from you; and
- send you marketing communications.

Disclosure of Personal Information

Where we disclose your personal information to our agents or partners for these purposes, the agent or partner in question will be obligated to use that personal information in accordance with the terms of this privacy statement.

In addition to the disclosures reasonably necessary for the purposes identified elsewhere above we may disclose your personal information to the extent that it is required to do so by law, in connection with any legal proceedings or prospective legal proceedings, and in order to establish, exercise or defend its legal rights.

Securing Your Data

We will take reasonable technical and organisational precautions to prevent the loss, misuse or alteration of your personal information. We will securely store all the personal information you provide.

Further Information

If you would like further information, please review our full Privacy Policy available on our website, www.standunderwriting.com.au, which includes the privacy notice of your insurer, Liberty Specialty Markets.¹
